

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million, from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995. The public sector has become an important employer of people with mental health problems.

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the mental health of people in the public sector. The Department of Health (1995) has published a strategy for mental health care, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of people in the public sector. The strategy states that 'the mental health of people in the public sector is a priority for the Department of Health'. The strategy also states that 'the Department of Health will work with other government departments to ensure that the mental health of people in the public sector is given the same priority as the physical health of people in the public sector'.

Compassion

All people are born
With the same basic parts.
We all have arms and legs,
And most a little smarts.

But there are those more gifted.
They have something more
Than just the simple ability
To see that two plus two is four.

They have that something extra.
It is with them from the start.
The deep feeling compassion,
Enclosed within their hearts.

Their main concern is not for themselves,
But instead for those of friends.
Their gift of simply listening
Is the greatest one to send.

These people will stay by you,
Like sweetness upon a rose,
To hear out all your problems
And help you ease your woes.

We cannot say enough about them,
These people with hearts of gold.
Their beauty is never ending;
Their compassion will never grow old.

These people of whom we speak
Are a rare and vanishing breed.
They abide by their high standards
As if it were their creed.

It is a true pity
That these people are so few.
We know of only one such person,
The one and only you.

Dan Marsh

We, the staff of the 1977 Lamp, take great pride in dedicating our yearbook to Stanley Sangeloty. During his eighteen years as a guidance counselor at Berlin High School, he has advised many students on career as well as personal decisions. In doing so, he has shown sensitivity to each student's needs. His honest concern for people has earned him the admiration of both his colleagues and his students. We wish him continued success and happiness.

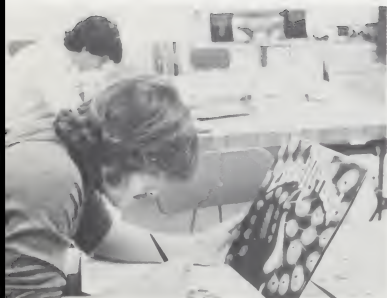

The shuffle of feet, the slamming of lockers, the ringing of bells, and a welcome "hello . . ."

A circle is a series of points equidistant from a center, as life should be with each point taking us further yet closer to where we started.

The memory is a sponge which soaks up knowledge that is released when and where it is needed.

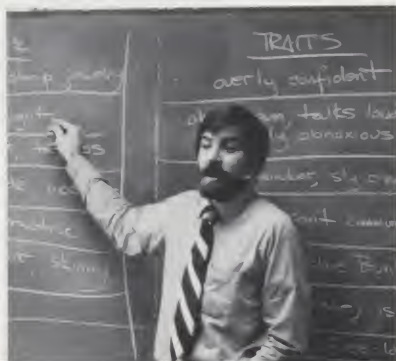

Everyday is much like the day before, except for the unique condition that what is not quite the same makes all the difference.

Creativity is the coming together of separate ideas to form what has never been formed before.

Friends come with time
and leave with memories.
We all come with questions
and leave with answers.

What can happen in a day
from sunrise to sunset
from happy to sad.

WE THE REFORMISTS

We, the Boy's State delegates of the town of Berlin, have witnessed enough as pertains to the convention system. We feel that Boy's State, other than the continuously underhanded wheeling and dealing, is a most rewarding learning experience. However, we came here ardently armed with high moralistic principles and ideals which have been totally and unjustly rinsed from our minds. We feel that hypocrisy is being promoted by the present Federalist and Nationalist parties rather than moral and ethical politicking. We have observed the proceedings of our respective party meetings and mutually agree that we are being unwillfully imbued with the type of politics that is constantly criticized in our present day society. We also feel that we have been pressured and continually induced by a certain centralized elite which obviously possesses the political resources and influence at this convention. To continue in this vein would demoralize us and distort our presently ethical views of democracy as it is practiced in our American institution. In concluding, we, the concerned delegates of Boy's State, are seeking the support and inclusion of any and all mutually dissatisfied citizens of the state who will seriously devote themselves to what we feel is a diligent effort to remedy the ills of the present party system.

In October, 1975, Mr. George Cleaveland was appointed principal of Berlin High School. On February 17, 1977, after only fifteen months, Mr. Cleaveland left Berlin High. In that short period of time, he established a strong philosophy of humane ideals from which Berlin High School can continue to create a positive educational atmosphere.

Mr. Cleaveland, thank you not only for improving the quality of education at Berlin High but also for uniting the various groups of people in our small community. We wish you continued success as a true educator and friend.

Sincerely,
The Staff of the 1977

Freshmen

The Freshmen Class, under the advisiorship of Mr. Robert DiCicco, began their first year at B.H.S. by electing class officers: Cathy Scarfe, Donna Calderone, Marlen Clark and Sue Ziegler. Their first class activity, the Magazine Drive, brought in more money for the Class of 1980 than any other previous class. David Gut was the top salesman. The freshmen continued their outstanding career at B.H.S. by having a highly publicized, controversial Freshmen Orientation. This orientation saw the Senior Class magic transform freshmen into Peter Pans and Tinkerbells.

The rest of their year took a more traditional form. Carol Bottomley was chosen to represent the class at Homecoming. A dance was sponsored in May. The Class of 1980 ended their first of four years at B.H.S. with a Senior Farewell Breakfast.

Junior Class Officers

William Carlson, President; Carolyn Conti, Secretary; Jeffrey Vibert, Treasurer; and Robert Sylvester, Vice-President.

The Junior Class proved to be a very strong class this year. Their strength can be attributed to the consistent leadership of class officers: Bill Carlson, Rob Sylvester, Carolyn Conti and Jeff Vibert, and the advisorship of Mr. Thomas Warburton.

Their first show of strength came during Spirit Week with the help of Dr. Suess. The juniors tied the seniors for showing the most school spirit. The spirit of the Junior Class never faltered even when their class rings arrived three months late. Cindy Knopf was chosen as the Junior Homecoming Attendant.

The highlight of their year was the Junior Prom held on March 26, 1977, at the Aqua Turf in Southington. The Class of 1978 is looking forward to a rewarding senior year.

SENIORS

1977 Class History

Freshman Year

We began the first of our four years at Berlin High School unaware of the many challenges ahead. The results of our first election of class officers were Lori Reisner, President, Angela Calian-dri, Vice-president, Marie Simeone, Secretary, and Cheryl Tomasi, Treasurer. Miss Lenore Kalnik was appointed as our class advisor. Our school spirit was high as we decorated the halls with Mother Goose during the 1973 Spirit Week. Dressed in curlers, pajamas, pincurls, and nightgowns, we did everything but sleep through our Freshmen Initiation. Mary Beth Higgins was chosen to represent the class at Homecoming. First year fund raising activities included the magazine drive and an Easter bake sale. At the close of our freshmen year we bid farewell to the Class of 1974 with a down-home country breakfast and a dance.

Sophomore Year

Having completed one successful year at Berlin High School, we felt that we knew all there was to know. We watched the Class of 1978 transform into hillbillies during their Freshmen Initiation. Thankful that it was not the Class of 1977 being initiated, we sat back and enjoyed the initiation. President Roger Tangney, Vice-president Julie Waters, Secretary Marie Simeone and Treasurer Cheryl Tomasi led the class. Our 1974 Pep Rally theme was "The Greatest Show on Earth," and we dressed as clowns, aerobats, and ringmasters. Colleen Hartney was chosen to represent the class at Homecoming. Once again our class showed its unity as we sponsored a candy drive to help an injured classmate, Erin Costello. A sophomore carnival, a dance featuring "Mannequin," and glass recycling were our class fund raisers. In the spring mini-courses gave us a well-earned break from classes. At the close of the 1974-75 school year, we looked forward to our junior year and the opening of the new high school addition.

Junior Year

September, 1975, saw many great changes at Berlin High School. We returned to a new addition and a new principal, Mr. George B. Cleaveland. The Junior Class leaders were President Roger Tangney, Vice-president Greg Kayko, Secretary Marie Simeone, and Treasurer Cheryl Tomasi. It was a year in which a great number of future plans were made. Class rings were distributed in October. Nancy Baccaro represented the class at Homecoming. On Valentine's Day the Junior Prom, "You Make Me So Very Happy," was held at De Pasquale's. Debbie Ahlquist reigned as Junior Prom queen with Theresa Dukes and Jennifer Carlson as her attendants. In the spring eighteen members of the Class of 1977 were inducted into the National Honor Society. Boys' and Girls' State candidates were chosen in March. The year ended with plans for senior year underway.

Senior Year

The anticipation over, our senior year finally arrived. President Roger Tangney, Vice-president Ed Klotz, Vice-president Angelo Fiducia, Secretary Marie Simeone, and Treasurer Roger Austin provided the strong leadership that we needed for a busy senior year. After a year's absence, Spirit Week returned. The Sesame Street Seniors shared the title of "most school spirit" with the juniors. The senior class treasury was bolstered by the profits from a well-organized senior concession during the football season. Kathy Pagella was crowned 1976 Homecoming Queen; Charlene Giardino was the senior attendant. Senioritis infected earlier than usual, but the warmth of spring, after one of the coldest winters on record, gave seniors new spirit. On May 6, 1977, the Senior Ball was held at the Hartford Hilton. The close of our senior year was marked by a farewell breakfast hosted by the Class of 1980. We leave Berlin High School with good memories of classes, activities, and friends.

And the seasons they go round and round
And the painted ponies go up and down

We can't return we can only look behind from where we came
And go round and round and round in the circle game.

Mrs. Schack

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are aged 65 and over has increased by 1.5 million, and the number of people aged 75 and over has increased by 1.1 million (Office for National Statistics 1999). The number of people aged 85 and over has increased by 0.5 million.

There is a growing awareness of the need to develop services to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (1999) has published a strategy for ageing, which sets out the government's commitment to improve the lives of older people. The strategy is based on three main principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.

The strategy is based on the following assumptions: (1) that older people are a valuable resource; (2) that older people have the right to live independently; (3) that older people have the right to access the services they need; and (4) that older people should be treated with respect and dignity. The strategy is based on the following principles: (1) to ensure that older people have the opportunity to live independently; (2) to ensure that older people have access to the services they need; and (3) to ensure that older people are treated with respect and dignity.
